FOOTBALL

Arlington High School opened its 1952 football campaign in the Findlay Preview where they fought a losing battle against a tough Ada team 6-12.

The following Friday Arlington gained sweet revenge over the North Baltimore team who had previously broken Arlington's 45 game winning streak the year before. Score 19-7.

On September 19th Arlington traveled to Van Buren and by defeating the Black Knight eleven 47-0 the Arlington Red Devils showed promise for a successful season.

For their next contest the Red Devils took on McComb on the home gridiron. The McComb boys showed a lot of scrap but the Red Devils again came out on top 13-7.

Continuing their winning ways, the Arlington team defeated Arcadia at Arcadia 39-0 on a cold wind-swept gridiron.

October 10th the Arlington Red Devils mastered the Liberty eleven 33-6.

The following Friday, October 17th, the Red Devils suffered their first league defeat in eight years and their only reversal of the '52 season. They lost to Cory-Rawson, who became the league's Champs, 14-0.

The Red Devils then started to click again the following week when they defeated the Vanlue team 20-7 in a well played game.

The Red Devils met a highly determined Mt. Blanchard eleven in their last contest of the season and came out of the fray with a 13-13 tie.

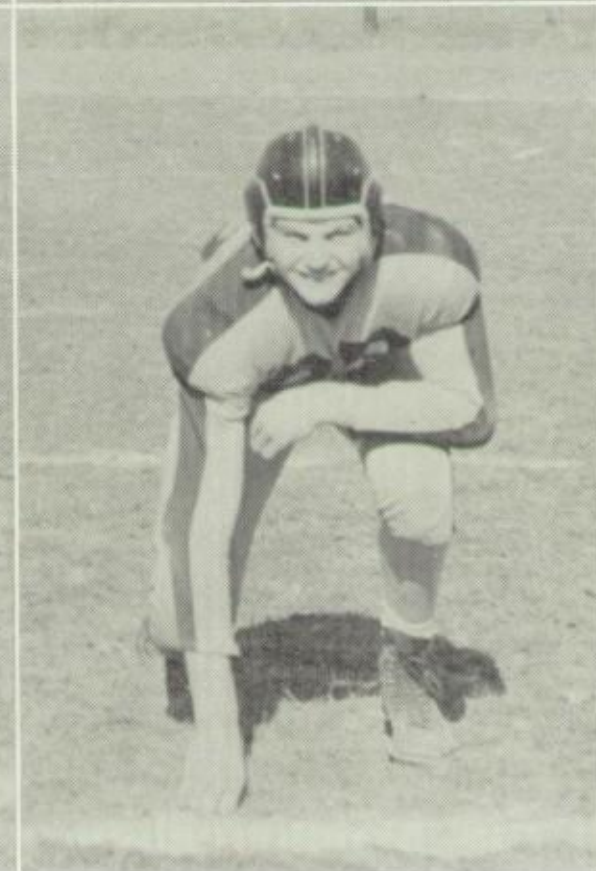

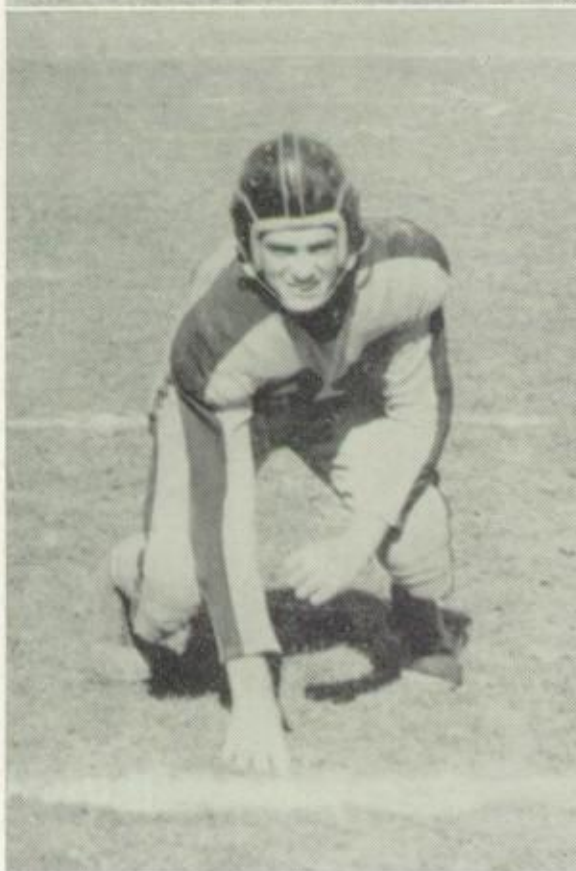

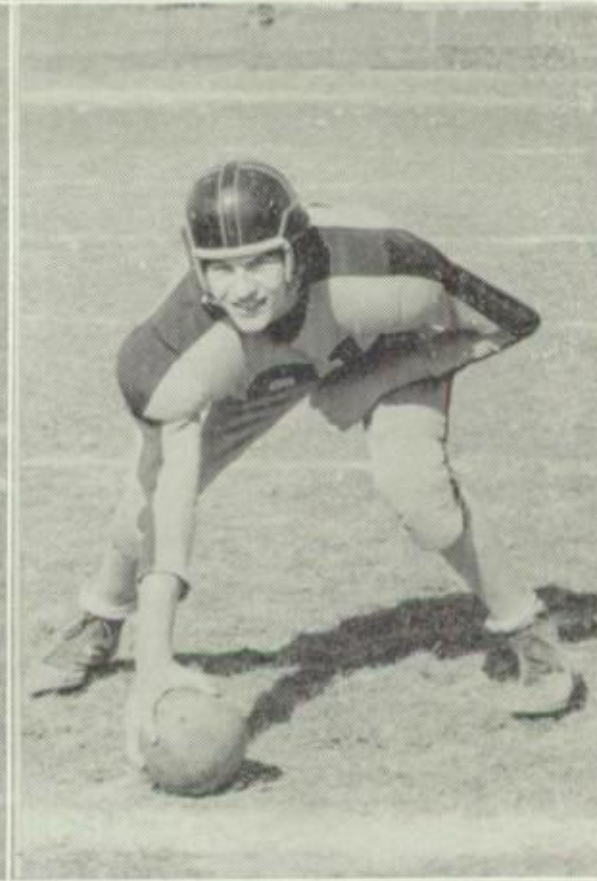

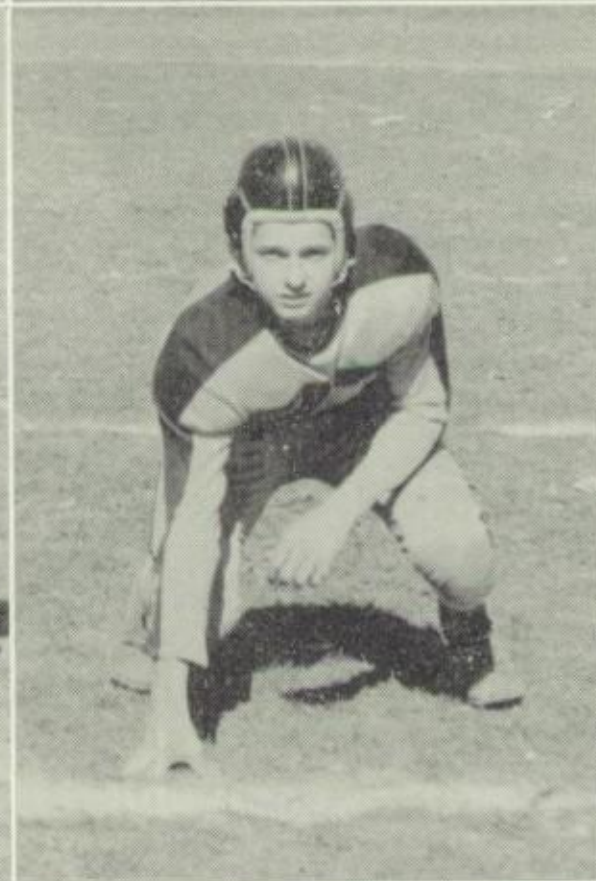

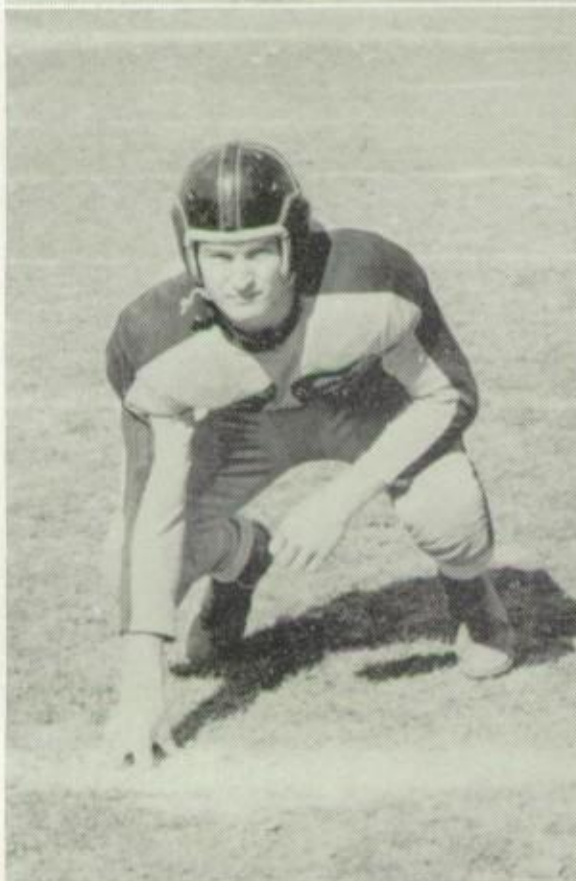

All in all the season has to be considered a successful one although it didn't come up to the standards of previous Red Devil undefeated records.

was a close game all the way. Inbody sank two fouls in the last 11 seconds to gain the victory for Arlington, 57-55. In our last league game, McComb took the measure of the Red Devils, 52-71, with four players fouling out for Arlington in the second half.

COUNTY TOURNEY: Arlington drew Van Buren and held them to one field goal in the last half as the Red Devils won, 49-31. Vanlue was Arlington's next victim, 64-51. Inbody scored 14 for high scorer. We lost to McComb in the final game, 42-45. Smith collected 20 points.

DISTRICT TOURNEY: We drew a bye and were to play the winner of the McComb-Ontario game, which was McComb. The Red Devils were not to be denied this time, and Arlington won out, 38-35. Fahl scored 8 points in the last quarter after taking hte injured Smith's place. Our next game was with Lucas, who had a tall team, but Arlington came out the victor, 58-57, in a thrilling ball game. Pepple hit 32 points. Smith was forced to the sidelines permanently with the injury sustained against McComb. This victory earned Arl ngton the right to play in the finals and a chance to go to Toledo. But more hard luck dogged the team. Waltermire injured his ankle in dummy scrimmage and the injury would not heal in time for Don to do his best. Paul Dean Smith and John Fahl took the injured players' places and played excellent ball. Don gave all he had and quite a bit more before leaving the game on fouls, caused mostly by his injury. Pepple, Staley, and Inbody tried to make up for the injured regular players but Sycamore was not to be denied. They led all the way, coping the game 60-47.

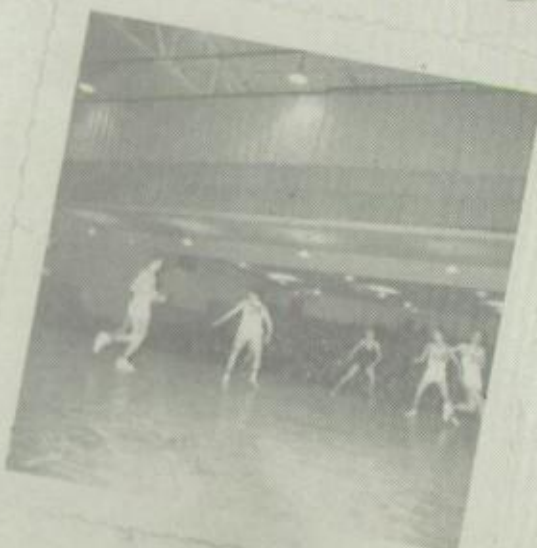

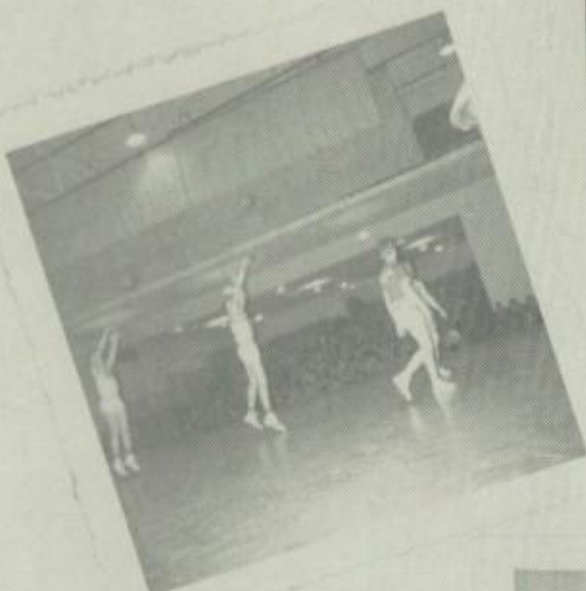

The boys composing the basketball squad this year are a credit to anyone associated with them. The loyalty, cooperation, and sacrifice that they displayed will be a lesson for future teams. Mr. McClary is to be commended for the skill, insight, and foresight he used in directing these aggregations. The odds were never too great for them to tackle. They never quit. Boys and coach, we salute you.

CLASS HISTORY

On September 8, 1941, twenty-nine first graders toddled into Arlington High School. Our first year was spent under Miss Fahl, now Mrs. Cas'or.

Our second year teacher was Miss White. That year one of our pupils, Richard Reigle, died. Paul Gossard, John Hasson, Marilyn Hindall, and Paul Reichley left us. We had two new classmates, Patsy Wentz and Gordon Hess.

Miss De Witt, now Mrs. Statler, was our third grade teacher. We lost John Hasson, Robert Leiber, and Norma Jean Crates.

Miss Farmer, now Mrs. Remaley, was our guide for the fourth year. Charles Ballinger, Leonard Grohoske, Marilyn Hunter, Colene Bibler and Irene Rettig joined our class. We lost Jerry Stahl and Mary Ann Beach.

Again in the fifth grade Mrs. Statler was our teacher along with Mr. Gobrecht. We had one new classmate join us, Rita McKee.

Our sixth year was spent under the guidance of Mr. Gobrecht and Miss Brinkman. Our new classmates were Bob Corbin, Ethel Hempy, Norma Eddington, Bob Harper, Gerald Bibler, Mary Joyce Boehm, Harold Benjamin, Gerald Rettig, and Leroy Smith. Our fellow classmate, Jerry Stahl, rejoined us. We lost Barbara Bame and Patsy Wentz.

At last we reached the seventh grade. Miss Schlaack, was our home room teacher. Jim Staley, Norma Jean Eddington, Gerald Rettig and Leroy Smith left us but in their place we gained Eilene Pifer, Gerald Inbody, Melvin Harvey, Marilyn Marohn, and Dean Schaller.

Our last year of grade school was under the guidance of Mrs. Beach. We lost Ethel Hempy, Rita McKee, Eileen Schmehl, Bob Harper, Ann Smith, Marilyn Marohn, Harold Menjamin, Gerald Bibler, and Dana Kimmel. Our former classmate, Jim Staley, moved back.

In the year 1949 we entered High School. Mrs. Knight and Mr. Strickling were our sponsors. We elected the following officers: Beverly Bibler, president; Darwin Wilson, vice-president; Janel Frantz, secretary; and Wayne Pepple, treasurer. Charles Ballinger, Bob Corbin, and Lynn Wolford left us. Eileen Schmehl, Patty Lee, and Alvin Feller joined us.

In our Sophomore year Mrs. Knight and Mr. Castor were our sponsors. The following officers were elected: Darwin Wilson, president; Beverly Bibler, secretary; and Janel Frantz, treasurer. Rilla Chamberlain and Phillip Patton were our new members.

We finally reached the rank of juniors. Mrs. Knight and Mr. McClary were our sponsors. The officers for that year were Gerald Inbody, president; Darwin Wilson, vice-president; Janel Frantz, secretary; and Wayne Pepple, treasurer. We regained Ann Smith. On April 4 and 18 we presented our class play, "The Big Help." On May 14 we honored the Seniors with a banquet.

The addition of Joan Hinger brought the number of seniors to twenty-six. We elected Wayne Pepple, president; Leon Gossman, vice-president; Janel Frantz, secretary; and Eileen Schmehl, treasurer. We presented our class play, "Mister Coed", on the evenings of November 24 and 25. On May 8 the Juniors honored us with a very delightful banquet. On May 17th our Baccalaureate services took place conducted by Reverend Glen Beck. And last but not least, the Commencement exercises were held on the 22nd day of May.

Who's Who in the News

A weekly column of the happenings in the social world

by Eileen Schmehl

The two prominent multimillionaires, Mr. Arden Woods and Mr. Melvin Harvey, have just contributed $25,000 to the Society for the Preservation of Old Mice. It seems Messrs. Woods and Harvey made their fortune by building a better mouse trap which has succeeded in ridding the world of all but a few mice.

The distinguished banker from New York, Mr. James Staley, has returned to his home town for a visit. Remember girls, Mr. Staley was voted the most eligible bachelor of 1965.

The marriage of the movie idol, Leon Gossman, to Margaret O'Brien was announced yesterday. The ceremony was performed by an old classmate of Gossman's, Rev. Alvin Feller. The couple will honeymoon at the Hula House in Hawaii owned by Carl Omen.

Pete Waltermire and his Hot Jazz Five were jailed last night for starting a brawl in a fashionable night club where they are currently playing. Jerry Stahl, trombone player, took over during the bartender's absence and the drinks were flowing freely. Judge Grohoske said the case comes up on Monday.

Miss Colene Bibler gave a lecture on good English usage at the home of the socialite, Mrs. Rodney Courtland (the former Nancy Bame). Celebrities present were the football pro Wayne Pepple and the Champion Lady Wrestler Janel Frantz.

The famous Inbody quintuplets celebrated their 6th birthday on July 21. Marilyn Hunter, the children's nurse, says they are model children especially Gerald Jr. The proud parents, Gerald and Eilene, are Mr. and Mrs. America of last year.

A $10,000 jewel robbery took place last night at the home of the Metropolitan Opera Star, Donna Cronbaugh. Miss Cronbaugh's companion, Joan Hinger, was locked in a closet by the robber. Detectiev Wilson says clues are abundant and he is confident that the thief will soon be caught.

After having shut herself up in her laboratory for several years, Dorothy Glick has finally come up with, she declares, a cure for the common cold. Her human guinea pig during the experiments was Ann Smith. Miss Glick said that she will call her cure "Annies Remedy" in honor of her assistant.

Miss Mary Joyce Boehm writes me that she has been given the appointment of Professor at Vassar. She is filling the positions vacated by the retirement of Prof. Philip Rogers. Prof. Rogers says he retired at an early age in order to enjoy his student acquaintances more fully.

Mr. Joe Schaaf, the first man to fly to the moon, has cornered the market on green cheese. Congress has gone into special session to declare this monopoly unconstitutional. Beverly Bibler, lawyer for Mr. Schaaf, declares that the moon is out of the jurisdiction of the United States. This should make an interesting case.

JOKES

Joan H: "How are you getting along with your driving?"

Nancy M: "Oh, fine. Yesterday I went 50 miles an hour, and tomorrow I'm going to try opening my eyes when I pass another car."

Joe S: "Gosh, this liniment makes my arm smart."

Jim S: "That's fine. Try rubbing some on your head."

Sing a song of sulphide, beaker full of lime,
Four and twenty test tubes,
Breaking all the time.
When the cork is opened,
Fumes begin to reek—
Isn't this an Awful Mess
To have five times a week?

Leonard G: "Something came into my mind and then went out again."

Joan H: "Maybe it was lonely."

Eilene P: "Last night Gerald tried to put his arm around me six times." (Some arm.)

Dorothy G: "Have you taken a shower, Mary Joyce?"

Mary Joyce: "Why no; is one missing?"

Phillip R: "What position do you play on the football team?"

Carl O: "Oh, sort of crouched and bent over."

JOKES

Alvin F: "Is your girl spoiled?"

Darwin W: "No, it's just the perfume she's wearing."

A man's head is remarkably sensitive.
Pat him on the back and his head swells.

Miss Schlaack: "Use denial in a sentence."

Joe: "Cleopatra lived and loved on denial."

Mr. Rost: "Didn't you have a brother in this course last year?"

Bob H: "No sir, it was I. I'm taking the course over again."

Mr. Rost: "Extraordinary resemblance, though."

Wayne P: "There is a certain question I've wanted to ask you all week."

Shirley C: "Well, get a move on you; I've had the answer ready for months."

Donna C: "I found a splinter of wood in my soup today."

Eileen S: "What did you do with it?"

Donna: "Oh! I ate it with the rest of my board."

Arden W: "Pop, what do they mean by a gentleman farmer?"

Mr. Woods: "A gentleman farmer, my son, is a farmer who seldom raises anything but his hat."

Perhaps some jokes are old,
And should be on the shelf;
But if you knew any better,
You should have sent in a few yourself.
